

Analytical Views

Three analytical perspectives used to evaluate global malaria performance.

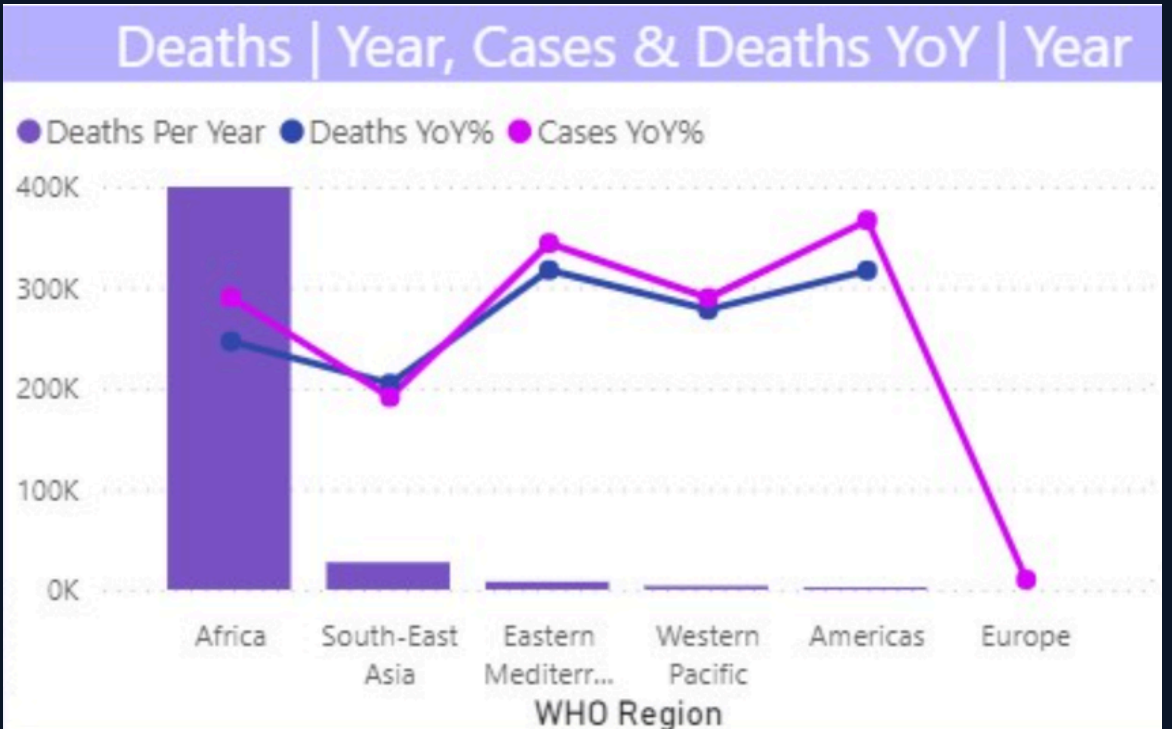

Trend Analysis

Tracks year-over-year changes in malaria cases and deaths.

Correlation Analysis

Evaluates the relationship between case growth and mortality across WHO regions.

Regional Comparison

Compares disease burden and mortality performance between WHO regions.

💡 Business Takeaway

These analytical views allow stakeholders to move from global trend monitoring to regional comparison and risk identification.